ORDER

Now before the Court for its consideration is the Motion of defendant Marion Francis Webster to Vacate Sentence; or in the Alternative, to Set Aside Sentences or in the Alternative, to Correct Sentence, pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §2255. Defendant alleges in his motions that the Court erred pursuant to Rules 32(c)(1), 32(c)(2), 32(c)(3)(D), and 32 (c)(3)(F) of the F.R.Cr.P.; that the Court erred by pronouncing an ambiguous judgment of the sentence; that the Court erred by allowing the suppression of evidence known to be exculpatory to defendant; that the Court erred by allowing "officers of the Court" to violate defendant's constitutional rights to due process, equal protection, and "liberty" under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments.

On November 24, 1981, defendant was tried and found guilty of all but two counts of a 19-count indictment involving the conversion and misapplication of government property, Indian property, false statements on bank loans, and receiving a stolen motor vehicle. On April 26, 1982, the Motion of defendant for Judgment of Acquittal NOV and for a new trial was overruled.

It is well-established that a motion to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence may not be invoked to relitigate questions which were, or should have been, raised on direct appeal.

Battaglia v. U.S., 428 F.2d 957 (9th Cir. 1970); Williams v. U.S., 334 F.Supp. 669 (D.C.N.Y. 1971).

Therefore, defendant's motion under Title 28 U.S.C. §2255 should be and hereby is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED this ______ day of November, 1984.

ORDER

Now before the Court for its consideration is Luther Ben Long's motion pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §2255 to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence by a person in federal custody.

The movant was charged by indictment in Case No. 82-CR-1-C with nine counts of violating Title 18 U.S.C. §1708, in that he knowingly possessed stolen mail. Movant was found guilty of all nine counts by a jury, by verdict rendered March 4, 1982. Movant was sentenced on April 13, 1982, to four (4) years as to Counts One (1), Two (2) and Three (3), with Counts 2 and 3 to run concurrent with the sentence imposed in Count 1, Four (4) years as to Counts Four (4), Five (5), Six (6), Seven (7), Eight (8), and Nine (9) with Counts 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 to run concurrent with the sentence imposed in Count 4. In addition, the sentence as to Counts 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 is to run consecutive to the sentence imposed in the other three remaining counts. The United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit having affirmed this conviction in May, 1983, movant surrendered for incarceration on June 16, 1983.

Movant contends, as the basis for this §2255 motion, that:

- a. he was denied his right to the effective assistance of counsel by virtue of appointed counsel's failure to object to erroneous and prejudicial jury instructions and failure to object to the imposition of multiple sentences for a single criminal offense;
- b. the Court's instructions to the jury regarding each count of the indictment's being a separate offense were erroneous and prejudicial such to deny movant a fair and impartial trial; and
- c. the multiple sentences imposed upon movant are illegal, null and void when but a single offense is charged in the indictment.

Movant's contentions should have been raised in his appeal and are not, therefore, proper matters for this Court's consideration. A section 2255 motion cannot substitute for an appeal's being taken, and we find no circumstances present here for making an exception to this rule. Garcia v. United States, 492 F.2d 395 (10th Cir. 1974), cert. denied, 419 U.S. 897 (1974). Nor can it serve to present to this Court at this time additional issues, which are allegedly based on facts all known to movant prior to his filing his appeal.

Accordingly, this Court finds that movant's motion to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence should be and hereby is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED this _ day of November, 1984.

No. 76-CR-158-C

LACY LEE PARKER,

Defendant.

ORDER OF REVOCATION

On March 22, 1977, came the attorney for the government, and the defendant appeared in person and by counsel.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant, Lacy Lee Parker, upon a jury verdict of guilty, was convicted of having violated Title 18, U.S.C., §§371, 2314 and 2, as charged in the Indictment.

IT WAS ADJUDGED that the defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of Two (2) Years as to Count 1. As to Counts 2, 3, 4 and 5, the imposition of sentence was suspended and the defendant placed on probation for a period of Five (5) Years as to each count; to run concurrent with the period of probation imposed in Count 2; all to commence upon release from incarceration. In addition to the usual conditions of probation, defendant was ordered to make restitution in the amount of $12,439.00, at the rate of $230.35 a month, beginning the second month after release from incarceration.

Thereafter, on the 25th day of July, 1984, there having been filed an application by the supervising probation officer that the defendant's probation be revoked and the grounds therefor being set thereon, and upon approval of the Court, summons was issued for the probationer to appear before the Court for a hearing on the Petition for Revocation.

Thereafter, and on September 11, 1984, pursuant to said summons, the probationer appeared before the Court with counsel. The government was represented. Thereafter, the Court directed that the probation officer recite and advise the Court and defendant the grounds of revocation. The probationer, having been given a written notice of the alleged violation of probation, and there having been made a disclosure of the evidence against him, and being provided an opportunity to appear and present evidence in his own behalf, together with the opportunity to question witnesses against him, the probationer confirmed and admitted Violation #3. The government abandoned allegations contained in Violation #2. After testimony by witnesses and introduction of exhibits, the Court continued said revocation hearing.

Thereafter, and on October 19, 1984, the revocation hearing was concluded. The Court found that the defendant had violated the terms of his probation and that probation should be revoked. The Court ordered a presentence investigation.

Now, on this 27th day of November, 1984,

IT IS ORDERED that the Order of Probation, entered on March 22, 1977, be revoked and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, Lacy Lee Parker, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of:

Count 2 - Eighteen (18) months.

Counts 3, 4, 5 - The defendant is fined $2,000.00 as to each count, for a total fine of $6,000.00. The defendant shall stand committed until such fine is paid or until defendant is released under due process of law.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the execution of sentence is deferred until December 10, 1984, at 9:00 a.m., at which time defendant shall surrender directly to the institution as designated by the U. S. Marshal in execution of said sentence.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court deliver a certified copy of this Judgment and Order of Revocation to the U. S. Marshall or other qualified officer and that the copy serve as the commitment of the defendant.

DATED at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 27th day of November, 1984.

ORDER

Now before the Court for its consideration is the motion of the defendant pursuant to Title 28 United States Code Section 2255. Because Mr. Napier failed to complete the form complaint, the Court issued an order on July 18, 1984, requiring Mr. Napier to complete the $2255 form more fully and to supply the Court with grounds for the motion and any additional supporting documentation. On August 28, 1984, Mr. Napier responded by filing a new and still uncompleted form for a motion under $2255, but attaching a brief in support of a Writ of Habeas Corpus under Title 28 U.S.C. $2241.

Since the Court can only conclude from these actions that Mr. Napier has chosen to abandon his motion under Section 2255, that motion must be dismissed.

As to Mr. Napier's motion under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 2241, this Court has no jurisdiction to entertain petitioner's motion. Petitioner is presently incarcerated in the Jess Dunn Correctional Center in Taft, Oklahoma, which is within the jurisdiction of the U. S. District Court for the Eastern District Habeas Corpus jurisdiction conferred on federal of Oklahoma. district court is limited to petitions filed by persons physically present within the territorial limits of the district court. White v. State of Tenn., 447 F.2d 1354 (6th Cir. 1971). addition, petitioner asks for relief in the form of a parole revocation hearing; and if such is not granted by the Federal Parole Commission, he asks for release from his confinement under a state charge. Clearly petitioner would not be entitled to release under the circumstances plead in his motion under §2241. It is well-established that habeas corpus may not be used as a means of securing determination of judicial questions which, if determined in petitioner's favor, will not result in his immediate release. McMahon v. Hunter, 150 F.2d 498 (10th Cir. 1945). The Court has also been advised by the Pre-Release Analyst with the United States Parole Commission that on May 9, 1984, Mr. Napier was afforded an in-person parole revocation hearing at which time the examiners found that his parole should be revoked and that none of the time spent on parole would be credited toward his federal sentence. Following the hearing, Napier appealed the findings of the Commission to the regional level and then to the national appeals board in Washington, D. C. and the findings of the Commission were upheld on both appeal levels. Therefore, it appears that Mr. Napier's Motion under Section 2241 is also moot.

Therefore, Mr. Napier's motions under Title 28 U.S.C. §2255 and §2241 should be and hereby are dismissed in all respects.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 27 day of November, 1984.

Defendant.	,

ORDER

Now before the Court for its consideration is the motion of movant Joseph Leonard Cox, Jr. to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence by a person in federal custody pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §2255.

Movant was charged, by indictment filed July 7, 1981, with four counts of violating Title 18 U.S.C. §§922 and 924. On August 21, 1981, a jury returned a verdict of not guilty as to two counts and guilty as to the other two counts regarding unlawfully receiving a firearm shipped in interstate commerce after former conviction. On October 15, 1981, movant was sentenced to a period of probation for three years as to each count, such probation periods to run concurrently. Movant did not appeal.

On December 12, 1982, pursuant to application by the probation officer, this Court heard evidence at a revocation hearing, wherein movant admitted violating the terms of his probation. The Court, on February 11, 1983, did not revoke probation, but instead extended the probation period for two additional years, for a total of five. Movant was ordered not to return to Osage County, Oklahoma, and was instead ordered to go to his brother's in Chicken, Alaska, and to report for probation supervision there.

On May 15, 1984, movant filed this section 2255 motion in Alaska. Movant alleges several grounds as a basis for this motion:

- 1. denial of effective assistance of counsel;
- conviction obtained by use of coerced confession;
- 3. illegal time served in county jail; and
- 4. unfair treatment; harassment.

The United States District Court of Alaska, by order of the Honorable Judge James M. Fitzgerald, filed October 12, 1984, answered movant's claim regarding ineffective assistance of counsel. The remaining claims were transferred to this Court as the court of the original conviction and sentence for determination.

Movant was tried on four counts and convicted of two. Any attack on such finding of guilty should have been made by a proper appeal. A section 2255 motion cannot substitute for an appeal's being taken in this case, and we find no circumstances present here for making an exception to this rule. Garcia v. United States, 492 F.2d 395 (10th Cir. 1974), cert. denied, 419 U.S. 897 (1974). Accordingly, movant's claim regarding a coerced confession must be denied.

Movant alleges the time he served in the Osage County jail was illegal. We disagree. A section 2255 motion may attack the sentence per se, but not the execution of it. See Tanner v. Moseley, 441 F.2d 122 (8th Cir. 1971). In addition, Title 18 U.S.C. §4082 provides in pertinent part that:

(b) The Attorney General may designate as a place of confinement any available, suitable, and appropriate institution or facility, whether maintained by the Federal Government or otherwise, and whether within or without the judicial district in which the person was convicted, and may at any time transfer a person from one place of confinement to another.

Finally, this Court finds movant's claim of unfair treatment to be without merit.

Accordingly, having completely and carefully reviewed the record before us, this Court finds movant Joseph Leonard Cox, Jr.'s section 2255 motion should be and hereby is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED this _26 day of November, 1984.
